

New CEO Has Extensive Packaging Experience From Previous Role

Beginning May 2, Jean-Christophe Deslarzes, president and CEO of the downstream aluminium businesses, will assume Gordon's responsibilities, as president and CEO, Alcan Packaging.

Jean-Christophe Deslarzes has an extensive knowledge of the packaging business. In June 2008, he was appointed president of the downstream aluminium businesses, including Alcan Engineered Products and Alcan Packaging, both businesses to be divested. In his new role, Deslarzes has supervised the strategy of Alcan Packaging.
