Oliver-Tolas Health Care Packaging is sad to announce Carl Marotta, longtime former owner of Tolas Healthcare Packaging (Feasterville, PA), passed away on June 24, 2009. Carl quietly and deliberately built a highly successful business by combining state-of-the-art processes with innovative ideas. His accomplishments can be attributed to a strong commitment to quality, service and performance as well as his solid technological capability and leadership. Carl's developments in adhesive technology and packaging innovation had a significant impact on the medical device packaging industry. All Carl's friends at Oliver-Tolas will miss him not only for his technical expertise, but for his kind and gentle nature.
