FPA Welcomes New Member

Linthicum, Maryland: June 12, 2010 - The Flexible Packaging Association is pleased to announce that FILMCO, a division of LINPAC Packaging has joined the Association as a converter member. Lou Petersen, human resources manager is the company's FPA official representative, and Karen Gail, marketing and sales manager is the FPA alternate representative.

FILMCO is a leading manufacturer of food-grade overwrap film for supermarket automatic, hand wrap and packer processor applications. Since 1963, FILMCO's success has been underscored by continuous innovation that blends traditional quality with modern technology to deliver the best performance for today's rigorous fresh meat, chicken, fish, fruit and vegetable case presentation.

For more information about FPA membership, or to view the full list of FPA members, contact FPA at (410) 694-0800 or visit the FPA Web site, www.flexpack.org.
