The Flexible Packaging Association Releases Agendas for the 2007 Safety Conference & Environmental Summit

Linthicum, Maryland: December 13, 2006 – The Flexible Packaging Association's annual Safety Conference and Environmental Summit will be held at the Trade Winds Resort in St. Petersburg Beach, Florida from January 24-26, 2007. These key FPA events include interactive presentations from industry leaders and U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) officials, focusing on regulatory issues of significant importance to the flexible packaging industry.

FPA members and non-members can register for either or both of these industry-specific events. The agendas, registration form, and travel/hotel information are available on the FPA Web site, www.flexpack.org.

The Flexible Packaging Association would like to thank Flint Group, Glenroy, Inc. and MEGTEC Systems for their generous sponsorship of the Environmental Summit and Safety Conference networking events.

About the Flexible Packaging Association

The Flexible Packaging Association has served as the voice of the flexible packaging industry since 1950. FPA members are manufacturers of flexible packaging sold to users or distributors for packaging purposes, and material or equipment suppliers to the industry. Flexible packaging is produced from paper, plastic, film, aluminum foil, or any combination of those materials, and includes bags, pouches, labels, liners, wraps, rollstock, and other flexible products.
