Linthicum, Maryland: November 19, 2012 – FPA is requesting your participation in the 2013 FPA Flexible Packaging Summer Internship & Academic Scholarship Program. This is a great opportunity to support the development of the industry's future leaders through a career enriching internship. If your company would like to offer an internship through the program during summer 2013, please let me know and provide the following information by December 14, 2012:

1. Internship Discipline
 - Packaging (chemical, systems, mechanical, industrial)
 - Printing
 - Research
 - Graphics
 - Food science
 - Other discipline
2. Internship Location
3. Point of Contact (name, phone number, email)
4. Availability of Housing and/or Transportation Assistance

A list of companies offering internships will be sent to printing and packaging colleges/universities on December 17, 2012. Students must submit their internship application by January 31, 2013. Four academic scholarships, each valued at $3,000, will be awarded to interns who successfully complete their internship. Scholarship recipients will be determined by lottery if the number of interns is greater than available scholarships.

Please contact FPA with any questions at (410) 694-0800.
